

News from Nursery

This week we dressed up for world book day and read the story Charlie Cook's favourite Book and afterwards we talked about the books we liked to read at nursery. We have also been looking at spring time, colouring pictures and exploring sensory trays. In the garden we have been looking for signs of spring, chalking pictures of what we find and making footpaths along the grass.

